

Leave a Lasting Legacy.

Voices for Children is committed to creating a lasting impact on the lives of foster children. Our supporters have been crucial in providing hope, stability, and opportunities for these vulnerable young lives. As we look to the future, we invite you to consider leaving a lasting legacy through a planned gift.

What is Legacy Giving?

Legacy giving, also known as planned giving, allows you to make a significant and enduring impact on the lives of foster children by including Voices for Children in your estate plans. This form of philanthropy enables you to extend your support beyond your lifetime, ensuring that your values and commitment to our cause live on.

Types of Legacy Gifts

1. Bequests in Wills: You can include a provision in your will specifying a gift to Voices for Children. This can be a specific dollar amount, a percentage of your estate, or even the residue after other bequests are fulfilled.
2. Life Insurance Policies: Designate Voices for Children as a beneficiary of your life insurance policy, providing crucial support to foster children.
3. Charitable Trusts: Explore options like charitable remainder trusts or charitable lead trusts, offering both financial benefits for you and sustained support for our mission.

“We’ve been avid supporters of Voices for Children since we first came to Tampa.

This wonderful organization is dedicated to helping foster kids and we will continue to support them any way we can. We hope you’ll consider helping too!”

- Former Buccaneers’ head coach Bruce Arians and his wife Chris
